Notes

The amount of food ordered turned out to be nearly perfect. We didn't run out but also have very little in leftovers. The only exception was we had extra chicken tenders that mysteriously disappeared sometime before Sunday morning.

The Nor Joe's lasagna was a big hit as was the food from Rouses (chicken tenders and beans) Conesco sandwiches also good.

Getting subs for Sunday was also a great idea. Easy cleanup since we didn't have help that day. We got an estimate of the number of teams in advance, but knowing we could up the order until the last minute.

The help, Teresa Ruiz, was beyond excellent. She's done the job before and knows her way around the kitchen and doesn't need to be told anything. She worked Thursday-Saturday.

She came at 9AM and left after everything was cleaned up in the kitchen, around 3:30.

Not much help is needed on Sunday if sandwiches or subs are served.

Some of the King cakes and donuts were donated and all of the desserts. We asked several men to bring drinks which they did, but still didn't have enough for Sunday, so have to keep an eye out for that.
