

ACE WEEKENDS CANCELLATION POLICY – HUNTINGDON NOVEMBER 2024

A deposit of £80 per person is required upon booking. Deposits are not refundable.

The balance is due by 1st October and we will not be able to accept cancellations after that date (but see  below).

 If you need to cancel the following conditions apply:

1. If we manage to resell your room then a £20 per person (£30 per couple sharing) administration charge will be taken and the balance will be refunded to your bank account.
2. If you find someone to take your room and arrange them to pay you directly there will be no penalty.
3. If you find someone to take your room and the administration is done by Ace Weekends then a £20 per person (£30 per couple sharing) administration charge will be taken and the balance will be refunded to your bank account.
4. In the case of guests sharing a twin (or double) room and one cancels there will be a £20 administration fee PLUS the other occupant will need to pay the single occupancy supplement of £65. If you manage to get someone to come in place of the person who has cancelled then the conditions apply as in 2 or 3 above.

Guests are recommended to have UK travel insurance to include protection against late cancellation. This typically costs under £10.
