WHAT TO EXPECT AT YOUR BRIDGE CLASS

- You will learn by playing lots of hands, not by listening to boring lectures
- Each week, learn a bidding, play or defensive strategy, then play hand after hand to practice the new concept
- After each hand is played, all the cards will be turned up and the bidding, play and defense will be reviewed while it's still fresh
- You won't need to take notes because you'll take home handouts with clear explanations and quizzes to reinforce what you've just learned
- You'll receive copies of every hand played in class with written analysis of the suggested bidding, play and defense
- You'll receive your own bidding summary, a handy, pocket-sized guide to help you remember the various bids
- You are guaranteed to hear one terrible joke per class
- You will play with clean cards
- You will play with between classes
